Never Again & Always

there was a time, my eyes would stray I wouldn't commit, I couldn't commit, no matter which sweet way but then you came into my life and swayed my rules of play you helped me see a truth long lost with the words you didn't say falling in love is something we all do but somehow it was different when I fell in love with you it didn't seem quite possible, but yes, it must be true I fell for you repeatedly, and each time my love grew

*never again and always, with you falling in love, each time new
falling in love, each time true* so many times, and each time more and more new things to learn, new things to know, new things to adore what used to seem so difficult and too much of a chore became with you a task so sweet, and also honest and pure and so I reached out further, daring all I had and even when things went quite wrong, it never seemed so bad and now to know I've risked so much should maybe make me sad oh but somehow I know you're the one, and that's what makes me glad

falling in love, each time true falling in love, each time, each time, each time true*

Paralysed

not a motion not a breath
I am paralysed as my thoughts race by

I find no logic but I search no more I force no reason nor fight its law

*numbed by beauty
numbed by pain
numbed by feeling
it's all in vain*

*stunned with fever
stunned with fear
stunned with fury
my sight's not clear*

another moment another lie
I plummet in turmoil yet neither cry nor sigh the clouds hurry past but I'm not that wise for I remain

paralysed

*numbed by beauty
numbed by pain

stunned with fury*

I'm not that wise
I remain
paralysed

A Real Man

I love men who show their emotions I love men who can shed a tear I love men who know when it's time to hold me and when it's time to lend an ear

but I still need a man, a real man a man who makes me feel it's me, the woman I need a man, a real man not some wimpy feeble version of a male design

I love men whose muscles don't replace their brain cells I love men who are sensitive and aware I love men who can talk about their problems and those who are merciful and fair

a man who makes me feel it's me, the woman

I love men who are tolerant and charming I love men who are well-dressed and sleek I love men who can laugh and have fun in life and who know when they're allowed to be weak

a man who makes me feel it's me, the woman

a man who makes me feel it's me, the woman

You Are The One

I spent my whole life looking for the right person, oooh one mighty big task, oh yeah and I sure did often ask myself the question would I ever find the one to make my perfect pair?

but I did it, I found the one the one to make me happy, the one to hold my hand, to have so much fun I did it, I found the way the way to each other's heart, come what may you are the one, you're the only one for me the one I've chosen in my life, for eternity you are the one I will cherish all my days adore and love and honor you in oh so many ways and even when life brings its troubles and its fears I know the right one's at my side to wipe away my tears and even when life hurts and I feel I can't go on I know the right one's holding me and'll help me to feel strong

and if the day should ever come when words are said in haste I won't up and out, but work it out, all else would be a waste and if the day should ever come when our love's put to the test I won't give up, I'll hold on tight, I already have the best

*you are the one, yes the only one for me
the one I've chosen in my life, for eternity

Psychopathic Creature

twas long ago in winter, I knew I shouldn't have gone he said to me don't worry, nothing can go wrong a fool I was to believe him, but how could I have known my face showed fear, he saw this clear, then left me all alone

I stood there still and lost, didn't know what to do the darkness ate into my bones, my heart was aching too as I tried to find my way back home, I almost had to choke how could he treat me in this way, what a crazy kind of joke psychopathic creature, I hope you had your fun watch out, if I set eyes on you, you'd better up and run psychopathic creature, what you done with me you know you made a big mistake, you should've let me be

I knew I had to get him back, I'd search and track him down but nowhere was he to be found, he must've fled from town then one day I finally saw him, walking on the street but I got all scared and hid from him, worried we would meet

no time for being a coward, my chance had finally come I'd make him wish we'd never met, now justice would be done but as I then drew close to him, a vision calmed my nerves what a pathetic life this creature has, he's got what he deserves

Flame Of The Night

piano arrangement based on a composition conceived by Thorsten Eichhorst, Mike Herrmann, Johannes Tibursky & Annette Yashpon

my flame of the night, intense as my love blinding me of sorrow with your light you help me see my dreams and desires old memories burn and new hope is set free *flame of the night, flame of the night my dreams and desires all in one light

has a flame ever seemed so right*

helping me rekindle my sight your flame flickers on, it fires sparks of joy lighting new pleasures from days long gone

has a flame ever seemed so right*

the darkness now seems oh so bright without a sound our rays combine giving us strength for a love newly found

has a flame ever seemed so right a flame has never seemed so right*

Leaves Of Change

a leaf on the ground, almost dead, not a sound yet you hear its voice so clearly it says, I'm not dead, don't you see, things have changed my life's been enriched so dearly leaves of change, you fell next to me leaves of change, it was meant to be leaves of change, autumn leaves don't just die leaves of change, love doesn't lie

I thought summer had gone and my luck with it too I fell down and my future looked grey and bleak then you fell next to me and softened my heart and the joy you brought me was true and deep

the wind blew me on and I was whisked away but trusted you'd be blown on too and the rain poured on down, but I went with the flow for I knew I'd be brought back to you

and whatever happens now I don't fear the change but thank you for being at my side and if this should change too, I'd be sad but move on for I now know it's all part of life's ride

Just One More Evening

one more evening together with you I promise that I won't ask for more even if it's the last thing I do but somehow I know that when evening comes and you're together with me I'll realise just how bad I'm kidding myself and how painful love can be

I need to see you just one more time feel your heat, smell your scent and then I'll be just fine but when the time comes to pull away it's clear I'm not done yet possessed by you, it's all so hard you're not easy to forget

give me one last moment to say all that needs to be said to hold on tight to those memories then I'll get on with my life instead but one thing's for sure when that moment comes and it's clear what I have to do this may be the very last evening for us but never my last feeling for you

one more evening together with you
I promise that I won't ask for more
even if it's the last thing I do
one more evening together with you

even if it's the last thing I do*
