With You

this longing is too much for me I need to see you, can't you see it wasn't just some one night love affair and it's not about whether you're the one who knows, when all's said and done but why d'you have to be so very far away with you, I feel like travelling the world in an air-balloon with you, I feel like howling like a wolf when it's full moon with you, I'd cross the seas in a rusty old bath tub with you, I come alive like a frisky lion cub the time with you was hard to beat it seems our paths were meant to meet the summer night held longing and desire and all too soon I had to pull away I would've so much liked to stay and relish in your spell so deep within

so when's the sequel, just tell me when I'll tally the days till I see you again

I'm just bursting to share the magic with you once more and let's keep it simple, just go out and discover the craziness of life and each other as together there is so much to explore

with you, I come alive like a frisky lion cub*

with you, with you, with you*

What's One Extra Lover?!

I was happy, I didn't need more was with a great guy, the best I ever saw but then this other dude, stirred up something in me something I knew my guy shouldn't see

I felt new born, alive and wild ready for adventure like a curious child responsibility gave up its fight passion took over, explosion through the night

*I love my man, he's so good to me a partner as safe as can be but somehow I need more than a friend and a lover I also need passion from another don't get me wrong, it's what I need feverish affection ain't just greed and they go together don't cancel out each other

it's true, I could have said no but what's the big deal, my heart said go no self-control but was this so wrong I know there's much worse in the world going on nothing's changed, I still love my guy I don't wanna hurt him but I don't wanna lie he mustn't leave me, that wouldn't be fair losing him would be too much to bear

but somehow I need more than a friend and a lover

what's one extra lover*

Abyss

it was dark yet I thought I could see it shone out brightly provoking me I reached to grasp it, it seemed to call I needed more but afraid to fall

the silence was too much as it deafened my ears should I risk leaning further, should I risk losing tears the secrets in the darkness were singing a song yet their words had no meaning and it all seemed so wrong but its depths and its beauty had worked their sweet charm I had no more choice and was naked to harm my doubt increased every day yet the lights kept on flickering my way they seemed to call me from all around but I am blinded, can't find its sound

should I risk leaning further, should I risk losing tears
the secrets in the darkness were singing a song,
but its depth and its beauty had worked their sweet charm I had no more choice and was naked to harm*

Daisies

just like the daisies, you gave me a bed where I may lay low, not a word being said I closed my eyes, felt so tender and sure yet you scattered my petals and some of them tore how many petals does a daisy have gentle and fair, needing great care those little, white petals, protecting my soul if you tear them off you'll destroy the whole he loves me yeah, he loves me not don't let the petals be all I got strong and resistant I'm sure I'll survive for dreaming of daisies keeps me alive how can I see what you think at night when you close your petals, hiding out of sight is this how to keep my innocence and cheer when he tears off my petals while whispering in my ear

*he loves me yes, he loves me not

Don't Leave Me Now

I cried a tear a tear too many for you and even though it hurt like hell I didn't know what to do I knew we weren't right, you and me but somehow it still felt good don't go just yet, hold me once more I don't care if it's not what we should

*don't leave me
don't leave me now
I should be strong
but I simply don't know how
don't leave me
don't leave me now
maybe things could still work out somehow*

each new day brings new hope but by the time the lights go out at night I know that I can't cope there was a time not long ago the future showed you and me our love still lives, so what's gone wrong we feel trapped instead of free

don't leave me now
don't leave me now
maybe it could still work out
somehow*

don't leave me now
don't leave me now
somehow*

I cried a tear too many for you

It's Your Eyes

it's your sparkle

it's your smile that I love it's the way that you grin the way that you laugh it's the way that you are when you look at me.

you're so sexy

devour me

devour me

devour me

you're my light

you're my strength

my inspiration

you energise me the power of your heart makes my heart race

spellbinds me

I can't resist

devour me

devour me

I Surrender

you make me feel the way I do for you

please don't forget me I crave the day when you're back with me my heart is throbbing, my soul searches for you I want to believe you'll be there soon our love is strong

our love is right
I surrender

you live within me we are meant to be it's destiny let our love join us soon

our love is right
I surrender

you make me feel make me see make me love

time passes so slowly where are you, come to me the right moment will come and until then I trust

our love is right
I surrender

yes, I surrender

Nobody Does It Better

composed by Marvin Hamlisch lyrics by Carole Bayer Sager

makes me feel sad for the rest nobody does it half as good as you baby, you're the best*

I wasn't looking, but somehow you found me I tried to hide from your love light but like heaven above me, the spy who loved me Is keeping all my secrets safe tonight

sometimes I wish someone could nobody does it quite the way you do did you have to be so good* the way that you hold me, whenever you hold me there's some kind of magic inside you that keeps me from running, but just keep it coming how'd you learn to do the things you do

baby, baby darling, you're the best
you're the best*

Have That Candle Burning

when life gets tough and you're feeling all alone when your walls are crumbling and your future's unknown when the stairs get steep and you fear the climb have that candle burning and you'll be just fine

*a candle burning to let us hope a candle burning to help us cope a candle burning, it's yours and mine
have that candle burning and you'll be just fine*

whatever your doubts about the world you live in whatever your fears that virtue can't win whatever your feelings that you're running out of time

d'you sometimes worry, d'you sometimes sigh d'you sometime despair, d'you sometimes cry d'you sit there waiting, watching for a sign

It's Not Meant To Be

I didn't want to cry

when you let me go

I didn't want you to notice that your words had left me low and no matter how much I tell myself you weren't the one for me

I'm lost, I'm hurt, my pride is sore

I'm as lonely as can be you said, you know it's me not you

I'm not yet free in my mind my last love is not long back

I need time to leave her behind don't flatter yourself and your feelings it ain't just your poor wounded heart

I need someone who understands, cares for me for who I am you weren't right for me from the start why do we fall for the ones who're unsuitable doesn't make any sense to me

I'm sure I can't be all that unlovable but somehow it's not meant to be you'd think we all liked hurt and pain we look for it day and night trapped in love's mighty game

It seems a long and unfair fight

You Can't Eat Roses

dedicated to my fantastic Father on the occasion of his 76th birthday geraniums in the greenhouse what a silly waste of time it makes much more sense to have grapes there and pick them from the vine a pond can be quite pretty in the garden for all to see but if I ain't a fan of watercress what use is it to me

I won't dig up my garden to give flowers extra space when I can plant my tasty vegetables and grow them in their place who needs to look at Marigolds while sitting down to lunch I'd rather admire a lovely cabbage patch that's produce I can munch

*what's the point of something pretty if you can't eat it

they sure don't go with meat
no, you can't eat roses I grow what I can eat a carrot from the garden, a pumpkin, a sprout a meal for two like this, now that's what romance is about what's the point of something pretty if you can't eat it

peas peas peas peas carrots carrots carrots carrots leeks leeks leeks leeks swede swede swede swede

Summer in the City composed by The Lovin' Spoonful, John Sebastian, Steve Boone, Mark Sebastian, Mark Oliver Everett hot town, summer in the city back of my neck getting dirty and gritty been down, isn't it a pity doesn't seem to be a shadow in the city all around, people looking half dead walking on the sidewalk, hotter than a match head

but at night it's a different world go out and find a girl come on, come on, come on and dance all night despite the heat it will be alright and babe, don't you know it's a pity the days can't be like the night in the summer, in the city, in the summer, in the city cool town, evening in the city dressed so fine and looking so pretty cool cat lookin' for a kitty gonna look in every corner of the city t'ill I'm wheezing like a bus stop running up the stairs gonna meet ya on the roof top

go out and find a girl come on,
come on let's dance all night
despite the heat it will be alright

Let's Hold Together

we're all people on the earth all just struggling to survive wanna be happy, live and love enjoy each day that we're alive

when it all goes wrong
It ain't about finding someone to blame
let's hold together
that way we're strong
that way we can overcome life's pain* life's full of choices, racing past and reasons to help us get through a long day until something happens and our life stands still and our reason for being simply drops away

let's hold together

there's so much beauty in the world yet there are times when we just don't wanna see so much hurt, as long as it's not us but the fact is it could happen to you and me

*let's hold together
let's hold together

let's hold together
that way we're strong
